It's hard to believe that we are only 4 months away from the 1st of January 2012. End of year madness has begun and if you have not planned your year-end event or ordered your end of year gifting now is the time to do so.

August has been a busy month and we have already started working on proposals for 2012. Our gifting division has expanded rapidly. Updates on our gifting website are almost complete and soon you will have even more options to choose from.

Markex Cape Town also took place this month and we look forward to sharing a few new gifting innovations in this edition. Don't forget to contact us for your secretaries day gifting requirements - the 7th of September is around the corner.

Many Cape Town venues have also been updating us on their end of year specials so please join our Facebook page for weekly notifications.

Also featured in this newsletter are indoor and outdoor year-end function packages, a new modern conference venue only 30 minutes from Cape Town as well as a bit of ABBA magic for your year-end function.

Last but not the least; don't forget to support SA on the 9th of September when the RWC kicks off.

We would like to wish all our Muslim customers Eid Mubarak.

May you have a joyful, colour-filled spring day!

ABBA MAGIC!

Abba Magic SA will recreate the unforgettable magic of an ABBA concert, singing their most memorable hits in an Electrifying LIVE performance. This fantastic feel-good show is the ultimate. It is like Abba never left!

The purpose of this show is not to copy Abba, but rather a celebration of their music. Throughout the production the audience will embark on a magical journey through the rise of ABBA. This extravaganza of sound and music will ensure that the music of Abba keeps on playing in the hearts of every audience member. In South Africa the music of Abba has once again captured the imagination of old and young after the release of the movie "Mamma Mia". Suddenly everybody was singing and dancing to the music of this legendary band.

It is guaranteed to see the audience on their feet after the very first song, singing and dancing to the everlasting sounds of ABBA. ABBA Magic SA will make your corporate event a most memorable one with loads of laughs and fun!! Be prepared to sing and dance along.
