Silly Season has arrived! Shopping malls are already filled with festive decorations and soon the first of many corporate yearend events will take place. Our office is currently a very eventful place to find yourself in as, the last arrangements are being made for the Yearend events taking place in November. We would like to take this opportunity to thank our clients for their loyal support. We are executing the Retail Credit Solutions Event for the 5th consecutive year as well as John Thompson and Old Mutual events for the 3rd and 5th year respectively.

We are also looking forward to working with unique and different event venues this year. Our décor suppliers have also come up with on-trend, stylish décor designs and we look forward to seeing it all come together. All events will be featured in our last newsletter for 2010.

In this newsletter we feature our new luxury gifting range that offers a variety of exclusive gifting options for corporate clients. The range includes items imported from Europe. We showcase two events that took place during the month of October and also introduce a 5 star venue in Cape Town.

Please also take note of our 2010 closing dates and contact us as soon as possible with any gifting orders, to avoid disappointment.

We wish all our clients the best of luck during this busy season!

MOMENTUM FUNCTION AT EVITA SE PERRON

On Saturday 9 October 2010, brokers from Momentum were treated to a day out in Darling as part of a recognition incentive.

The group boarded the bus at their offices in Mowbray, snacking on some nuts and biltong en route to Darling. It was a beautiful sunny day making a true West Coast scenic drive possible.

Upon arrival in Darling, guests were welcomed with a glass of Sparkling wine. Whilst enjoying this, they were able to browse in the A en C shop as well as take a look at goods on offer by the crafters outside or take a walk through the nostalgic political garden.

Evita se Perron is so rich in mementoes from the past and the Afrikaans culture, that everyone can relate to something they see there.

Guests were then seated and welcomed before sitting down to a truly South African meal of Chicken, Bobotie, Pumpkin, Vegetables and home baked bread and of course – there is nothing like a koeksister with coffee to end this traditional meal.

Then it was time for the Lady of the House, Miss Evita Bezuidenhout to make her appearance. The show on offer was “Ikons and Eikonas”, a humorous look at icons of the past and present and those who do not quite make it into that category!

It was a fantastic, funny show delivered in true Evita style and many laughs were had by all!

What a wonderful way to spend an afternoon with true West Coast hospitality and of course to go home with an autographed copy of “Tannie Evita se Kossie Sikelele” recipe book!

UCT ANNUAL HEAD OF DEPARTMENT DINNER EVENT

This event has become a very important part of UCT's calendar each year. The Vice-Chancellor of UCT invites all the Head of Departments, and Deputy Deans and their partners for this function.

We are privilege to have been involved in this annual event for the last five years. The challenge is normally to source a venue that is above average. Venues that we've used in the past include Mount Nelson, Table Bay Hotel, and Le Vendome Hotel. This year we were approached by The One & Only Hotel in the Waterfront. They offered us a very good package and we thought that this is the ideal opportunity to host the UCT dinner at Sol Kerzner's most talk about property in Cape Town.

We thank you for your support and trust you enjoyed the One & Only Experience!
